REGULATIONS.

I. The gates will open for the admission of visitors at 10 o'clock A. M. each day, and close at 10 P. M.

II. Every reasonable effort will be made by the officers of the Society and those in charge of the grounds to protect the property on exhibition from loss or damage, but the Society will not hold itself responsible should loss or damage occur.

III. All articles which are the product of the soil must be entered in the name of the producer. Those showing HANDIWORK or SKILL must be entered in the name of the one whose skill they exhibit. Such may be individuals, firms or factories. They must have been made within three years, and not exhibited at any former Fair of this Society. All other property must be entered in the name of the ACTUAL OWNER. Any violation of this rule will bar the violator from competing for any premium whatever, and render him and his exhibit liable to expulsion from the grounds.

IV. Should any person misrepresent his exhibit, and a premium be awarded upon it, such premium may be withheld by the Executive Committee.

V. Drunkenness, quarreling, or the use of profane or obscene language, also gambling, pool-selling, or other games of chance, will not be allowed on the grounds; nor fireworks, petroleum, gunpowder, matches, or any other objectionable or dangerous materials whatever.

VI. The Executive Committee reserves the right to withhold premiums in any case in which it shall appear to them that the regulations have not been complied with, or that fraud or deception has been practiced or attempted.

VII. No person shall act as superintendent or on any awarding committee in any department in which he is an exhibitor.

VIII. Tickets furnished exhibitors will be good for themselves only, and those attempting to transfer them will forfeit the same and be compelled to buy others before entering the grounds. The same rule will be enforced with reference to all other tickets.

IX. The prices of admission will be as follows:

Single ticket, each day	$ 50
Children under twelve years, each day	25
Carriages of visitors, with driver, each	50
One-horse carriage and driver, per week	3 00
Two-horse carriage and driver, per week	5 00

X. Each department will be under the special charge of one member of the Executive Committee, who shall be known as the Director of that department. He will oversee the arrangement of all articles offered for exhibition in his department, and have control of the space assigned to it. He will be assisted in his duties by a Special Superintendent, who will receive all exhibits, take personal charge of them, countersign the exhibitors' coupons, and deliver the articles on the surrender of his countersigned coupons at the close of the Fair.

XI. The Director in charge, and the Special Superintendent, shall attend the Judges when making the examinations in their respective departments, and furnish them with all required information. Premiums will not be paid to parties having exhibits, where it is proven that they accompanied the Judges when awarding the premiums. The awards, when completed, shall be signed by the Judge, and also by the Director, who will take charge of the book and return it to the Secretary. As the awards are made, the Director or his Superintendent will attach the ribbon indicating the award.

XII. Should any of the Judges previously selected fail to be present, the Director of each department is authorized to select others to fill the vacancies, always endeavoring to select persons duly qualified by their pursuits or experience to make correct awards in each special department. In all cases, the Judges, before awarding any premium, will be careful to see that the requirements of the Premium List have been strictly complied with by the exhibitor.

ENTRIES.

XIII. The entry-books will be open at the office of the Secretary of the Society, in the Agricultural Building in the city of Raleigh, from September 15 to and including the Friday next before Fair Week, and at the Secretary's office at the Fair Grounds on Saturday and until 12 o'clock noon on Monday, when all entries will positively close. Much trouble and annoyance may be avoided by compliance with this regulation.

XIV. Entries may be made in person or by letter. In making entries it will be necessary to give the name of the article, the name and post-office address of the exhibitor, and the premium number under which the article entered is to compete. This is especially necessary in order that the article may be properly entered. No entry fee for articles exhibited will be required.

XV. Each exhibitor will be furnished with a tag for each entry, having a coupon attached, which he will carefully fasten to his exhibit, and, taking it to the department to which it belongs, will be assigned space by the Superintendent of that department, who will see that it is properly displayed. Detaching the coupon will countersign it and return it to the exhibitor.

XVI. No article or animal will be entitled to space until the proper entry has been made. After an article or animal has been entered for a premium, it cannot be removed until the close of the Fair without permission from the Secretary or the supervisor in charge of the department; and if any person removes an article or animal without such permission, he forfeits all claims to a premium, even if the same may have been awarded.

XVII. Persons desiring space for the exhibition of articles or machinery not entered for competition must apply to the Secretary as early as possible, giving the name of the exhibitor and article, place of residence, and the amount of space required.

XVIII. Exhibitors of horses, cattle, sheep and swine will be required to display over each stall or pen occupied by their stock a placard containing the name, age and breed of animal occupying the stall or pen, and also the name and address of the owner. The placard will be furnished and filled up at the Secretary's office.

XIX. Arrangements have been made with responsible parties to furnish corn, oats and hay on the grounds at market prices in Raleigh, in quantities to suit purchasers.

XX. All entries shall be for the first premium of the premium number under which they are entered; but, failing to take the first, shall compete for the second, if a second is offered; and, failing to take the second, shall compete for the third, if any; but shall not be awarded more than one premium under the same premium number.

XXI. The same article or animal may compete for the premiums of two or more premium numbers, except when otherwise stated; but, in order to do so, must be entered under each.

XXII. Premiums are payable thirty days after the close of the Fair, and if not claimed by the first day of February, 1893, will be regarded as donated to the Society.

LIFE MEMBERS.

XXIII. Will be furnished tickets, good for the week, on an application to the Secretary. These applications may be made through the mail or in person, but must furnish the name of wife, if married, and children, if any, under twelve years of age, when tickets, properly filled out with names so furnished, will be issued. To avoid delay, applications should be made for those tickets several days before the rush of Fair Week begins.

GATE KEEPERS.

XXIV. Will be clothed with police authority, and are required to preserve order at the gates. They must not receive money for admission at the gates under any circumstances.

XXV. All tickets—Life Members' tickets or other tickets—presented by persons not entitled to hold them, must be taken up, and those offering them required to purchase others before entering the grounds.

SAMPLE EXHIBITS.

XXVI. The rule formerly adhered to, requiring exhibitors to bring two bushels of field crops and seeds, has been changed so as to require one bushel only.

OFFICIAL ANNOUNCEMENT TO EXHIBITORS.

ASSOCIATED RAILWAYS OF VIRGINIA AND THE CAROLINAS,

Office Commissioner,

RICHMOND, VA., April 22, 1892.

CIRCULAR NO. 4562.

Exhibitors will be accorded the following terms of transportation to the State Agricultural Fair, to be held in Raleigh, North Carolina, for the year 1892:

First. In shipping articles for exhibition Agents will require prepayment of freight at regular rates, and give a receipted bill, specifying articles in detail and charges on each. This receipted bill, accompanied by a certificate from the Secretary of the Society that the articles specified were exhibited at one of the Fairs will entitle the original owner of such article to free transportation of them back to the original shipping point.

Second. On delivery of any such articles after they have been transported back to stations from which they were shipped in the first instance, the original owner may return the receipted freight bill to Agent of the Company, and if accompanied by the certificate of exhibition, the Agent will refund the freight paid on such articles as are returned.

Third. Unless demand is made by the owner to have freight refunded at the time the articles are delivered to him on their return, all right of claim will be forfeited.

Fourth. Parties shipping horses for exhibition at Fairs must present certificate from the Secretary to the effect that the horses were not entered for races, nor used for any other purpose than that of exhibition at the Fair, or full rates in each direction will be charged.

LIST OF PREMIUMS.

DEPARTMENT A.

FIELD AND GARDEN CROPS.

MAJ. C. H. CLARK, DIRECTOR.

All entries in this Department must be made in the name of the producer.

In all cases where premiums are offered for the largest yield per acre, the land must be measured by a competent person, who shall certify to the accuracy of the same in the following form:

FORM OF CERTIFICATE.

I hereby certify that on the day of, 1892, I measured the land on which raised a crop of this year, the dimensions of which were as follows: X.....X.....X..... feet, containing square feet—that is to say, ... acres of land, and no more.

The exhibitor shall make out an exact and detailed statement of the kind and condition of the soil, quantity and kind of seed used, the time of planting and manner of cultivation, the kind and quantity of manure used, the total cost of cultivation and manuring, and the number of bushels or pounds raised, and shall certify to the same in the following form:

FORM OF CERTIFICATE

We hereby certify that raised a crop of this year upon the land measured by and that the accompanying statements and certificate have reference to said land, and the crop raised thereon, and none other, and are correct, that the land yielded bushels (or pounds), and that we are in no way interested in said yield.
(Signed)
(Signed)

Dated, ..., 1892.

[This certificate is to be signed by two disinterested persons.]

On all crops on which the premiums offered are for the largest yield, which are gathered in time to do so, the above statements and certificates must be furnished at the time of making the entry, and the premiums must be awarded during the Fair.

On all crops not gathered in time, these statements and certificates must be forwarded to the Secretary by the 10th of December, when a meeting of the Executive Committee will be called and awards made by them. But in all cases a sufficient quantity to make the required exhibit must be gathered, entered and placed on exhibition at the Fair.

For the largest yield of cotton, the exhibitor must show not less than two stalks taken from the plot of ground competing for said premium, with tags on each stalk, designating each variety, what premium they are exhibited for, and such other information as he can furnish in regard to cotton.

DEPARTMENT B—2.

CATTLE.

COL. W. H. S. BURGWYN, DIRECTOR.

Unless the Judges deem the animals individually worthy, they will withhold premiums.

Premiums awarded in this Department will be confined to cattle owned in North Carolina.

Cattle not owned in the State may enter without the payment of an entry fee, and owners will be permitted to sell on the grounds without charge.

NOTE.—Cattle entered for individual premiums can also compete in herds. A herd consists of one bull and not less than four cows or heifers over one year old.

[All except Grades or Natives must be registered and certificates of registration filed with the Secretary. In all entries for Grades, either the sire or the dam must be registered thoroughbred, and so proven.]

SPECIAL ATTRACTIONS AND ANNOUNCEMENTS.

The State Fair for 1892 will present more and greater attractions than have ever been condensed into one week of pleasure and general reunion of people in the State of North Carolina. Chief among these will be

PAWNEE BILL'S WILD WEST SHOW,

The greatest outdoor show on earth to-day; and it will be free to everybody who buys an admission ticket to the Fair Grounds. It will not be given under a tent, but in the open air on the race-track and grounds, where everybody can see it.

WHAT IS IT?

North Carolina has never been visited by anything of the kind before, and every man, woman and child within the borders of the Old North State have cause to rejoice at such an unusual opportunity. Who is Pawnee Bill? What kind of an affair is this historical Wild West? To answer these questions, it will be necessary to take a running glance at the lives of some of the leading characters in this company.

Gordon W. Lillie (Pawnee Bill) was born at Bloomington, Ill. He ran off from home at the age of 16 to seek his fortune in the far West, Indian Territory being his destination. He waded through water up to his waist for miles. A party of trappers and hunters, headed by "Trapper Tom," finally admitted the "tenderfoot" as one of their band. We next find him alone on the prairie, in a "nor'-wester," the thermometer being 20 degrees below zero, and he without food, fire or blankets. But suddenly he was startled by the cracking of dead boughs, and, turning, he beheld a stalwart fellow, clad to the ears in a buffalo-robe coat, who had spurred himself into the clearing. "Stranger," said Bill, "I would like to spend the night with you." "Well, we don't run no boarding-house, but I hain't going to see no one freeze while I can help it. Follow me, and I will take you to where there is plenty of fire, grub and blankets." Bright and early the next morning he was put on the right trail by his preserver, who proved to be no other than the famous Jesse James.

He was made, a few months afterward, Secretary to the Government Agent, and Professor of the Indian Industrial School at Pawnee Agency, which position he resigned the next spring. The Government Inspector next appointed him Interpreter to the Pawnees, a position which he filled for some time. We next hear of him trading with the Indians, acting as guide to parties traveling through the Indian country, and gaining considerable praise by his action in the Medicine Lodge Bank Robbery. The latter deserves special notice here.

On a dark, drizzly day in the spring of 1884, four horsemen, mounted and armed to the teeth, dashed up in front of the only bank at Medicine Lodge. One held the horses, while three went within and demanded the "collateral." The bankers refused to hold up their hands, and in the fight that followed, both bankers were killed. A score of cattlemen and cowboys (Pawnee Bill among the number) were attracted to the scene of the shooting, and these opened fire on the robbers, killing one and mortally wounding another. Three of the robbers escaped to the foothills of the Gypsum Bluffs. Pawnee Bill was intimately familiar with this country, and through his management the robbers were taken, and the following morning sun saw their lifeless bodies hanging from the limb of a giant tree on Elm creek, one mile east of Medicine Lodge.

Pawnee Bill was interpreter for Buffalo Bill's Wild West Show two seasons, and was presented by Buffalo Bill with a handsome gold medal in appreciation of his services; was also one season with the champion shot, Dr. Carver. He is an expert all-round shot, and, at each performance, will give specimens of his great skill with the rifle and shotgun.

Pawnee Bill's greatest achievement was as leader and chief of the Oklahoma settlers, where he took in a colony of 4,200 and opened to settlement a fertile district in the heart of the Indian Territory known as Oklahoma, thus furnishing homes for 25,000 pioneers and their families. In his constant intercourse with the Indians, he became aware that all existing claims, treaties, etc., of the Indian to the section of the Indian Territory known as Oklahoma had been extinguished and was public domain, subject to entry. But certain nabob cattle kings determined to thwart every move in this direction, since, by paying the Indians $100,000 per annum, they were enjoying the exclusive monopoly of these rich cattle lands. Pawnee Bill, a man of iron nerve and untiring energy, with a determination that knew no bounds, a man who spoke the Indian language, friendly with all tribes, a chief of the Pawnees, and who knew thoroughly every trick, trait and treachery of the wily red man—who had traveled every trail and knew every stream and camping-ground in vast Oklahoma—a trailer and guide from necessity, a leader by nature, full of self-reliance, yet unassuming, and with a heart true as steel and, when touched with pity, overflowing with love and generosity—was the man whom the Oklahoma settlers wisely elected as their chief and leader. In spite of opposition from nabob cattle kings, whose coffers were overflowing from the monopoly which they were enjoying; in spite of opposition from Lieutenant Elliot and the Seventh Cavalry, who had instructions to arrest Pawnee Bill and his council upon sight, 4,200 armed men under his leadership were preparing to take possession of Oklahoma by force, when Congress, seeing their determined attitude, passed the Oklahoma bill, and thus averted what would otherwise have been a clash between Pawnee Bill's forces and the Seventh Cavalry. Thus, to Pawnee Bill is due the credit of opening up 3,000,000 acres of the richest lands in Indian Territory. At no distant day Oklahoma will be a State, and in the State yard there will be a monument erected in honor of him who, by untiring efforts and constant zeal, opened to settlement homes for 70,000 families—"Pawnee Bill, the friend of the pioneer."

To Pawnee Bill's Great Wild West Indian Museum and Encampment have been added the following names, made famous by their hairbreadth escapes and deeds of daring:

TRAPPER TOM,

Hunter and trapper of the Rocky Mountains for the greater part of his life, and noted for the part he took in the Denver Occidental fight, in which fourteen persons were shot, but he being in no way injured.

MAY LILLIE,

The expert girl-shot with the rifle, and the only lady living who has attained the extraordinary feat of breaking glass balls thrown in the air from the back of a running mustang, she following on a running horse. Numerous gold medals attest her skill at marksmanship. Miss Lillie is but twenty years of age, is highly prepossessing, and of one of the first families of Philadelphia. She stands ready to meet anybody of her age at from $500 to $5,000 a side at rifle-shooting.

LEFT HAND,

Recognized Government Chief of the Pawnee tribe, a modern Titan, and subduer of the Sioux Nation. Probably no Chief living to-day has had such an extraordinary life as Left Hand, the undisputed Chief of the Kit-ka-kack band of Pawnees. He is a true ideal of an Indian Chief, being straight as an arrow, high cheek bones, very dark skin, long hair, with scalp-lock braided; is very fond of the Indian dress, such as painting, buckskin leggings, wearing his head-dress of eagle feathers and scalps taken from his enemies in his younger days.

OKLAHOMA AL,

Leader of the Cowboys, whose experience with the rope and agility in riding horses won for him the reputation of being the "leader of the cowboys," a position which he still holds.

WICHITA JIM,

Whom Pawnee Bill believes to be the finest steer-rider living to-day, and makes a standing offer of $1,000 to any man who will surpass him.

INDIAN MUSEUM.

Pawnee Bill will also have on exhibition his Indian Museum, as well as his "Indian Encampment," consisting of an entire Indian village, where may be seen squaws at their bead work, making moccasins, sewing wampum, tanning hides, etc.; the braves in council smoking the peace pipe or "playing with their chieftain's young," and the merry-faced papooses that never cry, but, strapped to a board, are truly objects of great interest. The

HISTORICAL STAGE COACH,

Of the Cheyenne and Fort Sill line, will be exhibited. Not less than nine persons have met their death within the walls of this historical old coach of the Cheyenne and Fort Sill line. This coach will be used in the graphic and thrilling representation of a stage-coach robbery. Highwaymen and Indians will attack the coach as it comes thundering over the ground, drawn by a team of four horses, will kill the driver and guard, rob the passengers, and hold a wild carnival of bloodshed and robbery in a wild West realistic way.

MUSTANG WALTER,

The prince of cowboys, who does many tricks in lasso-throwing and riding attempted by no other, and justly deserves his well-earned title of champion.

SPOTTED-HORSE TOM

Has lived the greatest part of his life in the northern part of the Indian Territory. He gets his name from the fact that he is the owner of a ranch in Southern Kansas on which he breeds and raises nothing but spotted horses and ponies.

BUCKSKIN JOE,

Was captured when a child by the Indians and lived with them many months. His life has been a checkered one. He has experienced all the hardships incident to the life of a frontiersman. He was a soldier in the late war, and carries many scars from hard-fought battles.

CYCLONE JOHN,

Who is noted for being the finest rider on the plains. Brave as a lion, with a heart as soft as a woman's, genial John numbers his friends by the legion.

STUMBLING BEAR,

The war Chief of the Cheyennes, with fifteen of his warriors, is also with Pawnee Bill's great combination. This Chief is credited with taking more scalps than any other Chief of his tribe. Pawnee Bill has a bond deposited of $10,000 for the safe return of these Indians to the reservation from which he secured them.

WHITE WOLF,

Chief of the Comanches, with twenty of his braves. These are positively the first band of Comanche Indians ever placed on exhibition. It was under White Wolf's leadership that the man-eating tribe of Tonkawa Indians were exterminated.

BRIGHT STAR,

The handsomest Indian Princess in the world. She is the daughter of Big Bear, Chief of a band of Pawnees, and is possessed of extraordinary charms.

WILD WEST LYNCH LAW.

The mode of hanging the horse thief, illustrating lynch law in the Western States and Territories, will be one of the attractions of Pawnee Bill's Wild West. This scene will show the horse thief stealing the horse of a sleeping cowboy. The cowboy awakes, finds his horse gone, goes to his companions, and all start off on a wild chase after the thief. They overtake him, throw a lasso around his neck, jerk him off the horse, drag him around the race-track at full speed, and wind up by hanging him to a tree and then riding around him, riddling his body with bullets. A graphic and thrilling feature of Western life.

Pawnee Bill will also illustrate the famous

MOUNTAIN MEADOW MASSACRE.

As the life-like portrait of savage modes, it has no equal. The approach of the war party; the unconcern of the campers; the Indian concealment; the sudden surprise; their unearthly yells and attack; the resistance, fight and dare-devil massacre of the men, women and children; the flight of savages on wing-footed steeds, arouses enthusiasm and thrills the audience.

THE COWBOYS.

Pawnee Bill, at great expense, has brought from the plains of Texas and the Indian Territory a picked band of the most scientific lasso-throwers and broncho-riders, headed by the famous plainsman, Mustang Walter, and at each performance they will lasso and brand cattle, ride bucking bronchos, pick up coin from the ground, mount and dismount while their horses are running at full speed.

EAGLE EYE,

A white man adopted and raised by the Indians; his wife, the

PRINCESS NEOLA,

A full-blooded Indian woman, with their little daughter,

LAUGHING EYES,

Will also be seen.

WILD BUFFALO.

A herd of the finest species of buffalo in America has been secured by Pawnee Bill, and a realistic representation of an Indian buffalo hunt will be given at each performance of Pawnee Bill's Wild West. Then there is

IODINE, THE TRAPPER,

Who, when a young man, assisted Kit Carson in organizing the first party to cross the plains for Oregon. He was once captured by the Sioux Indians, but managed to escape, and was once shot in the head by an Indian with an arrow, which nearly cost him his life. His entire early life was spent in the far West. He will be seen at every performance of Pawnee Bill's Wild West.

THE GRAND MEXICAN HIPPODROME

Will be an additional feature of Pawnee Bill's Wild West, introducing the most daring and skillful horsemen and champion rough riders in the world, in the races, sports and games of Mexico. Faithful representation of a bull-fight, Spanish chariot races, etc. In all, there will be exhibited twenty Mexicans, fifty Indians, twenty cowgirls, twenty cowboys, twenty scouts, guides and trappers.

Pawnee Bill's Wild West filled a two-weeks engagement at the Great Piedmont Exposition in Atlanta. This is what the Constitution has to say of it: "It is by far the best Wild West show ever seen in the South." The Daily Advertiser says: "Pawnee Bill's Wild West is the best one ever visiting Montgomery, Alabama." Says the Detroit Free Press: "It is a model Wild West, and was highly appreciated by large crowds at every performance." In Philadelphia 15,000 people daily visited this show, and this lasted for six weeks. The press all over the country speaks in high terms of the show. No description can do it justice. The officials of the approaching State Fair have engaged this Wild West show at great expense, and it may be seen by everyone visiting the State Fair this fall, free of extra charge. To see it will be worth a trip of many miles.

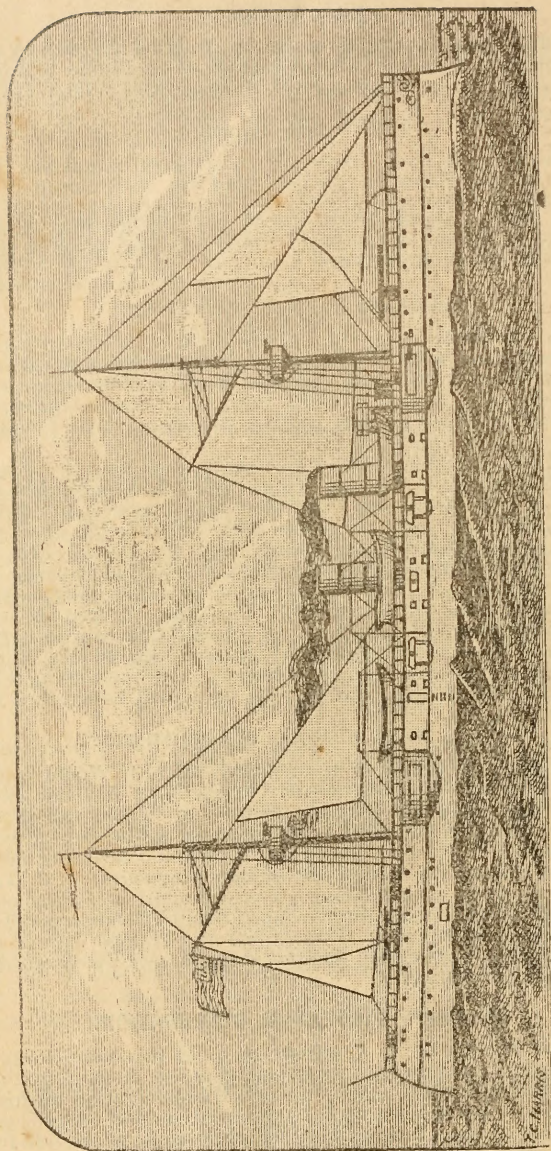

DO YOU WANT TO LEARN SOMETHING NEW?

Would you see the Indian as he was in his might? Would you know the Indian as he is in his present native home upon the wide sweep of the arid, alkali, sagebrush-covered plains, and in the valleys of the Rocky Mountain range? Would you learn, in a few pleasantly-spent hours, more than books and schools can teach you concerning the mode of living, the customs, the habits, the warfare, the pastimes of the Indian? If so, you may do so by witnessing a single exhibition of Pawnee Bill's Historic Wild West, Indian Museum and Indian Village in conjunction with his magnificent Mexican Hippodrome and Trained Animal Show.

Remember, this may be seen, without extra charge, by everybody who goes into the Fair Grounds.

RALEIGH'S CENTENNIAL CELEBRATION.

The City of Raleigh is one hundred years old this year (1892). The people of the city have determined to celebrate the one hundredth anniversary on a grand scale, and will have the celebration during Fair Week. The city has made a liberal appropriation, and a large committee of leading citizens is formulating the programme, which will include magnificent exhibits by all of Raleigh's industries and business houses, a grand procession of allegorical and trades floats, grand Germans and balls, and the greatest pyrotechnic display ever seen in the South. The city will be gorgeously decorated and at night will be beautifully illuminated. This feature alone will make a great gala week for the city.

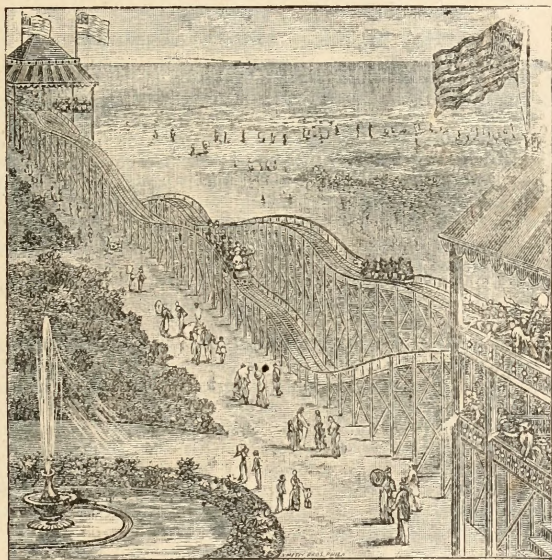

THE CRUISER "RALEIGH."

THE CRUISER "RALEIGH."

Through the kindness of the Secretary of the Navy, the Fair Association will be able to exhibit a very handsome model of the cruiser Raleigh, the superb and graceful United States gunboat which is named for the capital city of North Carolina. This is one of the handsomest vessels ever built. The model shows every gun and all the minutest particulars of the ship, and will be interesting to all North Carolinians.

THE FAMOUS SWITCHBACK RAILWAY.

This is one of the attractions on the State Fair Grounds, and is a universal favorite amusement. Two long undulating tracks connect two pretty towers four hundred feet apart, and the cars go from one tower to the other with lightning velocity and perfect safety. It is a railway whose cars have Nature for an engine and Amusement for a conductor—no steam, electricity, or any other motive power.

It is easy to understand how and why a car will run down hill itself; but it is startling to see them shooting up the steep inclines by their own force, and to such an extent that in traversing the length of the road, precipitous as it is, the passengers are landed safely at the other end, screaming with delight, having accomplished the seeming perilous journey of four or five hundred feet in thirteen seconds.

The sensation is delightful, and starts every nerve into new activity, causing the blood to circulate more freely, and thus adds new life and vigor to young and old.

Five cents pays for a ride; and the popularity of the amusement will be appreciated when it is stated that one of these railways at the Richmond (Virginia) exhibition in 1889 realized $5 000 in thirty days.

SPECIAL TO LADIES.

Ladies who are interested, practically, in canning and preserving fruits, pickles, etc., can this year have an opportunity of competing for the premiums offered by the Fair, and afterwards have their exhibits included in North Carolina's exhibit at the World's Fair. The State Committee will furnish handsome and uniform glass jars for this purpose to any lady who will make such an exhibit. Anyone wanting the jars should correspond with Dr. H. B. Battle, Raleigh, N. C.

WORLD'S FAIR EXHIBIT.

The Executive Committee of North Carolina's exhibit for the World's Fair now have under consideration a proposition to display so much of the exhibit as shall be ready at the time at the State Fair. It cannot be asserted now that this display will positively be made, but the easy probabilities are that it will be seen by those who come to the State Fair, and who will find it inconvenient to attend the World's Fair.

EXHIBIT OF BIRDS AND PET ANIMALS.

Among the unique and attractive features of the Fair will be the exhibit of A. Dughi, the Italian bird-fancier and dealer in pretty pet animals. He shows about one hundred and fifty varieties of singing birds and a large number of pets, such as Guinea pigs, prairie dogs, rabbits of all varieties and colors, talking parrots, cockatoos, owls, love birds, crows, jackdaws, eagles, Texas jack rabbits, foreign hares, etc., all of which constitute an interesting show for everybody, and the delightfully favorite show for all little folks. This exhibit will be in the Fair buildings, and free to everybody. It will not be a side-show, with extra admission fee.

ART EXHIBIT AND SALE.

A prominent young North Carolina artist and portrait painter will make a special exhibit of his works at the Fair, and during the week will have an art sale of his pictures, which are so justly renowned for their happy conception and meritorious execution. This will be the first sale of the kind ever held in the State, and will not fail to attract admirers and connoisseurs of high art. Among the very interesting pictures in the exhibit will be a large and handsome portrait of North Carolina's lady representative at the dedication of the World's Fair buildings in Chicago. This exhibit will be open and free to everybody who goes into the Fair Grounds.

TOURNAMENT.

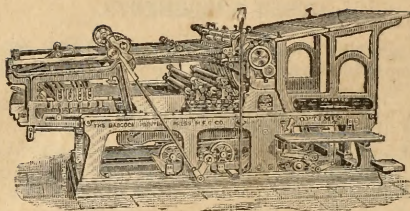

In the arrangement of a week's programme for a Fair, many things must be completed after the issue of such an official announcement as contains matter that must be put before the public early. Hence, it cannot be asserted here that a tournament will be arranged on a large scale, but steps have already been taken for arranging one, and it is probable that the largest tournament and coronation ball ever known in the Southern States will be a feature of the Fair for 1892. About twenty gallant knights of repute from three States are already interested. This tourney, if arranged, will include a large array of picturesquely costumed and plumed knights, and will culminate in a grand coronation ball in the large exposition building on the Fair grounds, at which the Queen of Love and Beauty and her maids of honor will be crowned.

OTHER AMUSEMENTS.

Besides the above, there will be an unusually large number of attractive and interesting side-shows, novelties, curios, etc., on the Fair grounds this year.

RAILROAD RATES.

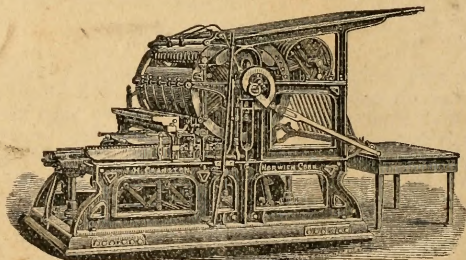

The low rate of one cent per mile has been made by the Associated Railways of Virginia and the Carolinas for all visitors to and from the State Fair, for distances in excess of fifty miles. For less than fifty miles the rate is from one and one-quarter to two cents per mile.
